Texas Resource Review (TRR)
English Language Arts and Reading Grades K—2

Top performers in many fields note that the best way to increase productivity is to improve tools. For Texas school districts and schools, this means selecting high-quality instructional materials is critical to improving student achievement. This notion is backed by a growing body of research showing that using high-quality instructional materials is one of the most successful and cost-effective ways to improve student outcomes. Districts often find that determining the quality of materials that are the best fit for their students is a time intensive and uncertain process. This leaves many districts asking, “How can we give our classrooms better resources?”

To help districts answer this question, in 2017, the Texas legislature instructed the Texas Education Agency to facilitate an independent analysis of the quality of instructional materials (Texas Education Code § 31.081 and § 31.082). This process, called the Texas Resource Review (TRR), will empower and strengthen local decision-making and make it easier for educators at all levels to attend to the specific, unique needs of their students. Local Education Agencies (LEAs) will have complete autonomy to decide if and how they use the reviews as part of their local review and adoption processes.

Overview of the Process
A series of steps will be completed to ensure reviews provide districts with clear, transparent, and user-friendly information about the quality of instructional materials. A high-level overview of the steps is included in the graphic below:

1. Develop Rubric
   • In collaboration with Texas educators, rubrics are designed to align with Texas standards. All completed reviews include the percent of TEKS and ELPS coverage.

2. Select Review Teams
   • Recruit, select, and train diverse teams of Texas educators, including teachers and administrators, to serve as reviewers.

3. Determine TEKS and ELPS Alignment
   • Materials undergo a TEKS & ELPS verification outlined by the SBOE process to determine percent alignment with TEKS and ELPS.

4. Evaluate Materials
   • Reviewers evaluate materials, collect evidence, and meet weekly to reach consensus and draft reviews.

5. Oversee Appeals
   • Publishers receive completed reviews and may appeal, comment, or make minor revisions for re-review.

6. Validate Reviews
   • Education Service Centers validate reviews to ensure evidence is sufficient to support findings.

7. Publish Reviews
   • Final reviews are published on the TRR website that is free to access for school systems and the general public.
Structure
The rubric is arranged by category, section, subsection, indicator, and guidance. The categories are the broadest level of the rubric and serve as its foundation. Within each category are nested sections, subsections, indicators, and guidance that provide additional details and greater clarity for review items.

*Note: Not all sections contain subsections

Categories
The rubric’s categories inform LEAs about essential components of instructional material products.

Scoring Methodology

Quality evaluations are intended to support LEAs in making decisions that best meet their local context. To provide LEAs clear, transparent, and user-friendly information, instructional materials are scored points at the indicator level and then totaled for the section. A percentage score is calculated based on the points awarded for each section. Each score value is supported by evidence collected, the evidence is published in final reports. Sections within the rubric are scored based on the table below.

Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills and English Language Proficiency Standards Alignment

State review panel members review instructional materials to determine the extent to which the TEKS and ELPS are covered and to identify factual errors. To be eligible for adoption, instructional materials must meet at least 50% of the TEKS and 100% of the required ELPS in the components intended for student use and the components intended for teacher use, be free from factual error, meet manufacturing specifications, be suitable for the intended course and grade level, and be reviewed by academic experts. The review results in four outputs related to the percentage of TEKS and ELPS present in materials designed for teacher and student use as seen below: Student TEKS, Teacher TEKS, Student ELPS, and Teacher ELPS. All materials must be reviewed for TEKS & ELPS Alignment.

- Texts include content that is engaging to K-1-2 students.
- Materials include increasingly complex traditional, contemporary, classical, and diverse texts. | 0/2/4 |
| 2.2 Materials include a variety of text types and genres across content that meet the requirements of the TEKS for each grade level. | - Materials include opportunities for students to recognize characteristics and structures of literary and informational texts.
- Materials include opportunities for students to recognize characteristics of persuasive texts, including stating what the author is trying to persuade the reader to think or do and distinguishing fact from opinion.
- Materials include opportunities for students to analyze the use of print and graphic features of a variety of texts. | 0/2/4 |
| 2.3 Texts, including read-aloud texts in K-2 and shared reading in Grade 2, are appropriately challenging, and are at an appropriate level of complexity to support students at their grade level. | - Texts and the series of texts connected to them, including read-aloud and shared reading texts, are accompanied by a text complexity analysis provided by the publisher.
- Texts are at the appropriate quantitative levels and qualitative features for the grade level.
- Read-aloud and shared reading texts are above the complexity level of what students can read independently. | 0/2/4 |

Literacy Practices and Text Interactions (reading, writing, speaking, listening, thinking, inquiry, and research)

Materials include instruction and practice for the grade and grade-band-specific skills of reading, writing, speaking, listening, and thinking. Materials provide questions and tasks for students to both develop and deepen comprehension of texts and topics. Students demonstrate grade-level literacy skills through reading, writing, speaking, listening, and thinking opportunities that require use of text evidence for response. Materials contain interconnected questions and tasks that build student knowledge. Tasks integrate reading, writing, speaking, listening, and thinking (including components of vocabulary, syntax, and fluency, as needed) and provide opportunities for increased independence.

| 3.A.1 Materials contain questions and tasks that support students in synthesizing knowledge and ideas to deepen understanding and identify and explain themes. | • Most questions and tasks build conceptual knowledge, are text-dependent, and prompt students to synthesize new information.
• Most formal and informal assignments and activities focus on texts students are reading/listening to and require close attention to the meaning and inferences as students demonstrate comprehension.
• Questions and activities grow students’ understanding of topics and literacy skills over the course of each unit.
• Materials provide opportunities for students to evaluate and discuss information from multiple places within a text. | 0/2/4   |
| 3.A.2 Materials contain questions and tasks that require students to evaluate the language, key ideas, details, craft, and structure of individual texts. | • Questions and tasks support students’ analysis of the literary/textual elements of texts by asking students to:
  o analyze, make inferences, and draw conclusions about the author’s purpose in cultural, historical, and contemporary contexts and provide evidence from the text to support their understanding;
  o compare and contrast the stated or implied purposes of different authors’ writing on the same topic;
  o analyze the author’s choices and how they influence and communicate meaning (in single and across a variety of texts); and
  o study the language within texts to support their understanding. | 0/2/4   |
| 3.A.3 Materials include a cohesive, year-long plan for students to interact with and build key academic vocabulary in and across texts. | • Materials include a year-long plan for building academic vocabulary, including ways to apply words in appropriate contexts.
• Materials include scaffolds and supports for teachers to differentiate vocabulary development for all learners. | 0/2/4   |
| 3.A.4 Materials include a clearly defined plan to support and hold students accountable as they engage in self-sustained reading. | • Procedures and/or protocols, along with adequate support for teachers, are provided to foster independent reading.
• Materials provide a plan for students to self-select texts and read independently for a sustained period of time, including planning and accountability for achieving independent reading goals. | 0/1     |
